The Year at Appalachian

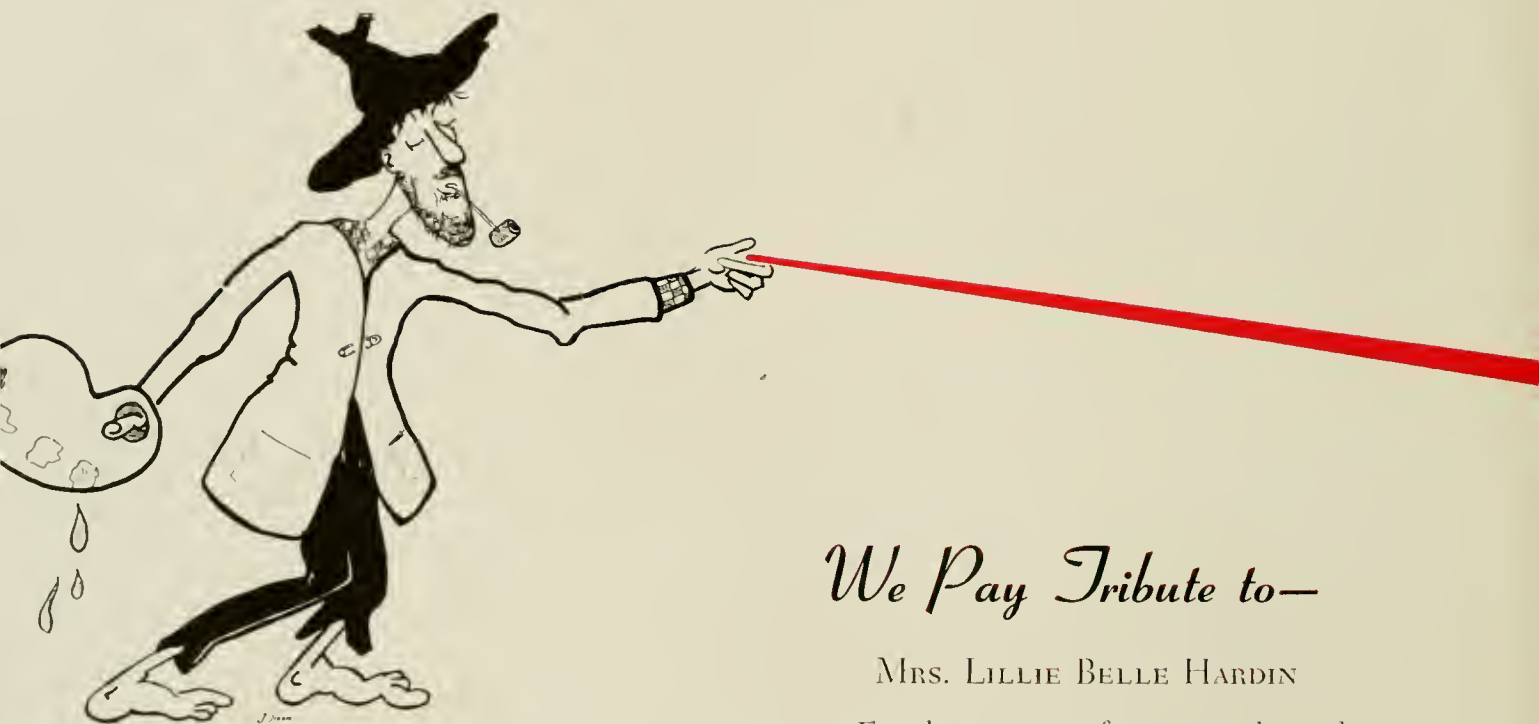

YOSEF! King of the North State Conference. Born in the land of imagination, and nurtured in the hearts of every Mountaineer since 1903. The impelling force that inspires every student and conspires against our opponents—BEAT CATAWBA—he is, was, and shall remain, OUR Yosef, the spirit of Appalachian!

Foreword

We present—THE 1950 RHODODENDRON—an informal review of faces, activities, and events that live now, and our hopes are that through the medium of this publication they will remain vivid so long as the spirit of "YOSEF" exists.

We Pay Tribute to—

MRS. LILLIE BELLE HARDIN

For her years of service through guidance and understanding, we, the staff of the 1950 RHODODENDRON, do humbly dedicate this volume to a dear and lovable lady.

A Backward

Four years. Years of perspiring over exams, term papers and athletic events . . . Reflections? Sure. The freshman examinations that unnerve the Stoics . . . knowing hardly anyone . . . yet, everyone speaking to each other . . . trying to distinguish between the Twins in the bookstore . . . we settle for "Twin" . . . the numerous "coffee clubs" conducive to chapel-cuts . . . watching the paths across the lawn evolve into thoroughfares . . . dreading one professor and thanking Mohammed for releasing the clutches of another . . . parallel reading that thrived for the first quarter only . . . baseball team playing during a blizzard

Glance . . .

. . . history in the making . . . influx of more professors—progress?
. . . “The Rats’ Den” . . . “The Floradora 4” . . . Playcrafters . . . eight repetitious A Club initiations . . . The ennui of some classes . . . a relaxing interest created in others . . . student written productions . . .
“Trial By Jury” given by the chorus . . . diverse attitudes toward graduation . . . Orientation being the greatest enigma . . . the destructive fire . . . numerous campaigns with a taste of victory and the stench of defeat . . . and now we coin . . . “Faith, Hope, Graduation; The greatest of these is GRADUATION.”

First moments . . . "Everybody likes Boone" . . . Strangers . . . "And, Joe, I didn't know you would be here." . . . a cloud of new environment descending . . . "I beg your pardon—but where is the Ad Building?" . . . Look, World! Here we come—making our way through years of learning . . . years of yearning . . . "Was that the whistle?" . . . Years of toil and grinding effort . . . "My sled for a holiday!" . . . Yet, laughing years . . .

"The parlor, the Gym, Gurneyburgers" . . . Thrilling years . . . "Two points, First and Ten!" . . . Look, World! Here we are—already reminiscing . . . already yearning . . . Autumn leaves, winter snowflakes, spring tonic!" . . . already reaping from our toil and grinding effort . . . "Yes, Sir, I read my parallel!" . . . Still—laughing years . . . "Thanks for the opportunity . . . we're glad it's Appalachian . . . God help us—Sophomores!"

RESUME

The 1949 football season was a successful one for the Appalachian Mountaineers. Two early season losses to conference teams cost them the conference championship, a title they held for one year. The Mountaineers came back after their two losses and won seven straight games, which netted the runner-up spot in the conference standings.

The climax came when Appalachian was invited to meet the Catawba Indians in the first annual Pythian Bowl. Not to be denied, the men from the mountains scored a resounding victory over Catawba, 21-7. The victory over the Indians made the season doubly successful, since it was the second win of the 1949 season for the Mountaineers over their traditional rival.

RESUME

The Appalachian Mountaineers had one of their best basketball seasons in years. Their record for the year was 21 wins as against 8 losses. They copped the North State Tournament in three successive wins over the toughest competition the conference had to offer. As a result of the championship and a playoff win over the Flying Fleet of Erskine, the Mountaineers were selected to represent the Carolinas at Kansas City.

WRESTLING

The 1950 wrestling season was one of the most successful in the history of the sport at Appalachian. Coach Watkins called this squad one of the best he has ever coached, and that in itself should prove the strength of this year's team.

The schedule for this year showed thirteen teams. Among them were three conference champions, all of which were soundly defeated by the Mountaineers.

To add a still greater touch to the season the Apps set a new scoring record when they totaled 368 points to eclipse the old mark of 360 held by Lehigh.

Tournaments for majors and non-majors were held in the spring. Organized teams from each class participated in one of the largest softball tournaments ever conducted on the campus. This year personal awards were given by the Physical Education Department, thus creating spirited rivalry among the groups.
